NOTICE of REQUIREMENT for MARKET CATTLE, GOAT, SHEEP & SWINE EXHIBITORS

Dear Youth Exhibitor;

In 1997, the Food and Drug Administration adopted a regulation, 21 CFR 589.2000, prohibiting the feeding of any ruminant-derived protein (meat and bone meal) to cattle and other ruminants. This regulation resulted from efforts to control any possible introduction or spread of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) or "Mad Cow Disease" into the domestic cattle herd of the United States.

Because of worldwide media attention over the past few years on the BSE issue and a desire to reassure consumers that all possible steps are being taken to continue to keep BSE out of the United States, a number of beef packers/processors and retail operations have established certification programs for their suppliers to insure that they are not receiving cattle or other ruminants that have been fed ruminant-derived protein materials.

Participating packers in the certification program have made it clear that they will not purchase any cattle, sheep, swine, or goats from producers who have not signed a certificate certifying that indicated animals have been fed any feed containing protein derived from ruminant tissues and/or that none of the livestock being sold have illegal levels of drug residues. Thus, for some packers and buyers to purchase your cattle, we will need to have the certification on the back of this sheet signed and turned in upon arriving to the scales during weigh-in at the fair. If your animals do not weigh in, they will be collected during barn meetings or at a specific time posted in your barn.

I hope that we can work together to insure that the animals contributed to the general food supply through the 4-H and FFA programs may continue to be both safe and wholesome. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Lisa D. McCutcheon
Extension Educator, 4-H Youth Development
