General Open Goat Rules:

- All goats exhibited must have official USDA scrapie identification to show.
- Haul-in animals should plan to show from their trailers as pens may not be available.
- If stalling, tack is NOT to be stored in the stalls. The Fair Board reserves the right to remove any tack from stalls not being utilized strictly to stall animals.
- Bedding must be either straw or pine shavings and stalls must be cleaned before leaving the grounds or exhibitor will be ineligible to show the following year.
- No use of barn electric for personal fans, crockpots, and other appliances unless directly for the benefit of the livestock. Blowers must be run on generators.
- No use of muzzles.
- All goat shows, junior and open, will be subject to Ohio Livestock Health Exhibition Rules & Ohio Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules as listed on our website. The rules include but not limited to:
 - Unacceptable Practices
 - Using ice, ice packs, cold packs, or cold compresses internally or externally unless prescribed by the fair vet. (Per ODA, this includes the use of menthol products such as Cool Blue, etc.)
 - Drenching of livestock at an exhibition is prohibited except as prescribed and done under the supervision of the fair vet.
 - Using any substance to enhance or change the color of the livestock, including the livestock's hide or hooves. Adding any substance externally to build up, change or alter the shape or conformation of the livestock, including by way of example but not limited to rope, false hair, graphite, hemp, and powders. This includes powders, powdered paints, and paint, per state veterinarian.
 - Prohibited grooming practices:
 - Using any substance to enhance or change the color of the livestock, including the livestock's hide or hooves. Adding any substance externally to build up, change or alter the shape or conformation of the livestock, including by way of example but not limited to rope, false hair, graphite, hemp, and powders. This includes powders, powdered paints, and paint, per state veterinarian.
- Barn closes at 11:00 pm every night.
