DOG SCHEDULE Saturday, August 10th

Registration (Grubb Arena, West)	8:00 am
Dog Judging(Grubb Arena, West)	8:30 am

General Rules

- Dogs participating in the Hartford Fair Dog Obedience, Showmanship and You and Your Dog activities must either be owned by the junior fair exhibitor or the exhibitor's immediate family. They must be in the continual care of the junior fair exhibitor for the duration of the project. The date of ownership must be no later than April 1. Proof of ownership is the burden of the exhibitor and the exhibitor's family. Hardship cases will not be considered for the Hartford Fair participation
 - Immediate family is defined as the junior fair exhibitor's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandfather or grandmother, including the corresponding step and half relations, or by a member of the exhibitor's household.
 - Continual care is defined as the junior fair exhibitor being responsible for and involved in the feeding, cleaning, and caring of the project.
 - Hardship cases are defined as dogs that replace the original project enrolled by the exhibitor after the county's enrollment deadline, or no later than April 1.
- Leasing or two youth sharing a dog is not permitted for Hartford Fair dog show participation.
- Lessons, instruction and advice for the exhibitor are encouraged. As long as the exhibitor is present in the learning situation, and handles or trains the dog the majority of the time present, such assistance can include occasional handling or training by another person. Only the exhibitor can train the dog at any type of training class on or after April 1.
- No one other than the Jr. Fair exhibitor is permitted to show the project dog at any type of dog show, including agility, field trials, rally trials, etc., as well as fun matches, on or after April 1st.
- 4-H members must be enrolled in the correct dog project to show in classes at the Hartford Fair as follows: Obedience, Project No. 2010 to show in Beginning Novice, Pre-Novice, Novice, Graduate Novice, Open, Graduate Open, Rally classes. Showmanship, Project No. 2011 to show in Showmanship. Working Dog Project No. 201 W to show in the Assistance Dog Class. The interview question for Showmanship will come from the Ohio 4-H Dog Resource Handbook 201R.
- Only domestic dogs can be shown at the Hartford Fair Junior Fair Dog Show. Wolf and wolf hybrids are not permitted.
- All dogs exhibited at the Hartford Fair must be six months of age by the date of the show. This includes Pilot Dog puppies and other assistance dogs. Proof of age is the burden of the exhibitor or exhibitor's immediate family. Dogs not meeting this age requirement cannot be shown.
- Junior Fair exhibitors in respective activities and classes are expected to perform in those events and demonstrate those skills which are listed in the Ohio 4-H Dog Resource Handbook, Ohio 4-H Dog Project and Record Book, and on various dog 4-H judging score sheets.
- Youth taking Assistance Dogs may show their Assistance Dogs in one Beginning Obedience class (Beginner Novice A, Beginner Novice B, or Pre-Novice) that meets the exhibitor's experience eligibility.
- Misbehavior and Exclusively for Dogs on the Fairgrounds, Show Area, or in the Show Ring
 - Any dog exhibiting unsafe or threatening behavior at any time before, during or after exhibition will be removed from the fairgrounds.
 - The Judge or show official will dismiss from the ring any dog exhibiting unsafe or threatening behavior
 - The judge will excuse any dog that appears dangerous to other dogs or exhibitors.
 - Any dog that snaps, attempts to attack, or attacks any person or dog while in the show ring will be excused.
 - If a judge determines that a bitch in the ring is in season or appears to be so attractive to males as to be a disturbing element, the bitch is excused. The judge shall not obtain the opinion of the health check officials
 - Any uncontrolled behavior such as barking, running away from its handler, etc., will be penalized according to the seriousness of the misbehavior, whether it occurs during, or between an exercise or before or after judging.
 - Any dog not under its handler's control may be excused from competition
- The 4-H and FFA professionals and show officials in charge will have the right and responsibility to order the removal from the grounds any person verbally or physically abusive to show personnel.

12. Only the exhibitor's dog, exhibitor, and show officials are permitted on the show arena floor at any time throughout the show

13. All dogs participating in the Hartford Fair must be currently licensed in the exhibitor's county of residence. The exhibitor must bring a certificate of license to health check. The dog license tag alone is not sufficient. This includes Assistance Dogs. The Assistance Dog Organizations (i.e. Pilot Dogs, Inc.), will provide the appropriate document for exhibitors to get a license for their dogs

14. Health Requirements:

- All dogs must be immunized against distemper, hepatitis, leptospirosis, parvo virus, parainfluenza, rabies by a licensed, accredited veterinarian. Bordetella vaccination is recommended, but not required
- The required vaccinations must be current by day of show and have been given by a licensed accredited veterinarian.
- Veterinarians must note any deviations from the required vaccinations (i.e. leptospirosis vaccination not given by veterinarian or dogs titer tested in lieu of vaccinations) either on the current year Junior Fair Dog Show Certificate of Vaccination or on veterinarian's letter-head that accompanies the official health papers
- A current year Licking County Dog Project Identification Form and Vaccination Certificate signed by a licensed, accredited veterinarian is required. These certificates must include the name, breed and age of dog. Other certificates of vaccination, computerized vaccination records, pet record cards, or kennel records will not be accepted. When getting a current year Licking County Dog Project Identification Form and Vaccination Certificate, be certain the dates of the required vaccinations, including the rabies vaccination, are listed by the veterinarian. Most dogs, unless it is their first time for a rabies vaccination, will receive or have received a three-year vaccine. The veterinarian must circle which vaccination (1 yr. Or 3 yr.) was given and record the date it was given. Health certificates must be completed and signed by the veterinarian.
- Before going to Registration, exhibitors must bring their dog license certificate, and current year Licking County Dog Project Identification Form and Certificate of Vaccination to Health Check. Incomplete or falsified information is grounds for dismissal.
- These are the vaccination requirements for showing a dog at the Hartford Fair. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to make sure that these vaccination requirements for the Hartford Fair are met.

15. Any dogs exhibiting abnormalities or symptoms of sickness, disease, or parasite infestation as determined by the health check officials, will be eliminated from the show and must be removed from the Fairgrounds. If a dog is under veterinary care for a health condition that is not infectious or contagious, the exhibitor must bring a health certificate from the attending veterinarian verifying the condition and treatment. Decision of the show health check officials is final.

16. Dogs must be kept on leash while on the fairgrounds, except when participating in the ring during judging. Exhibitors are totally responsible for their dogs while on the fairgrounds. Exhibitors are expected to clean up after their dogs. Dogs must not be left unattended.

17. Bitches showing signs of heat are not permitted to compete and are not permitted on the Fairgrounds. Each dog must go through a health check where all females will be checked for signs of heat. If a bitch shows any signs of heat, she will be eliminated from the show and must be removed from the Fairgrounds. Any bitch, which appears so attractive to males as to be a disturbing element, will be eliminated from the show and must be removed from the Fairgrounds. Decision of the health check officials is final. Pregnant or lactating (nursing) bitches may not be shown and are not permitted on the fairgrounds.

18. Exhibitors must provide their own collar, leash, water dish, kennel and any equipment needed.

- Obedience collars include well-fitting plain buckle or quick release collars, or slip collars of an appropriate single length of leather, fabric or chain with two rings, one on each 'end. Fancy collars, harnesses, head halters, studded collars, pinch collars with prongs or spikes on inside or outside, electronic collars, or any other special training collars, or collars that are either too tight or so large that they hang down unreasonably in front of the dogs are not permitted. Nothing shall be hanging from the collars. Leashes may be of fabric or leather and must be 6 feet in length for sub-novice classes. For novice and graduate novice classes, the leash need be only of sufficient length to provide adequate slack in the heel on leash exercise. Chain leashes are not acceptable.
- Showmanship collars include a chain or fabric slip collar, or martingale-type show lead. Nothing shall be hanging from the collars. Leashes may be of fabric or leather and long enough to allow for easy handling of the dog. Chain leashes are not acceptable.
- Head halters and harness are permitted in Assistance Dog and You and Your Dog classes only. They are not permitted in any of the Dog Obedience or Showmanship classes. Dumbbells must be made of one or more solid pieces of one of the heavy hard woods, or of a rigid or semi-rigid, firm, nontoxic, non-wooden material, similar in size, shape, and weight to a wooden dumbbell. Metal dumbbells are not permitted. Dumbbells shall not be hollowed out. They shall have no decorations or attachments, but may bear an inconspicuous mark for identification. The size of the dumb bell shall be proportionate to the size of the dog.

All dogs must have an entry in Class JA for premium.
